

12th Anniversary Big Nasty Hillclimb Stays Nasty

By Ron Dillon

Idaho's largest motorcycle event, the 12th annual, Treasure Valley Ford Stores Big Nasty Hillclimb, fired up again on September 12-14, 2014 and brought together its usual eclectic mix of interesting hillclimbers, machines and fans. The event was the fifth and final round of the 2014 Pole Position Raceway/Malcolm Smith Racing North American Hillclimb Association (NAHA) Championship Series, and pulled a gigantic number of 729 entries from across the country. Besides the Treasure Valley Ford Stores, other heavy-hitter partners were: Rhino Rush, 509, Camping World, High Desert Harley-Davidson, Pepsi, Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, The Battery Exchange, Mickey Ray's BBQ, Edge Performance Sports, Birds of Prey Motorsports, and Maverik, Adventure's First Stop.

Known as "Idaho's largest motorcycle event," and "The place where NASCAR meets Burning Man" the Big Nasty Woodstock/Burning Man feel continued in 2014. Children played in a kids area with inflatable toys and rides, local bands played on Friday and Saturday nights, the usual gigantic fireworks show entertained at midnight on Saturday, and full-blown, sanctioned snowmobile grass pulled a record number of entries. Yamaha, Arctic Cat, Polaris, Bombardier, Kawasaki, Suzuki and Honda, offered ATV and UTV demo rides all weekend, along with the usual helicopter rides. And of course, some of the best professional and amateur hillclimbers in the world competed for three days on some really nasty hills.

For the eighth year, both the trophy and altered hills were lighted and ran numerous classes both day and night. The trophy hill had been packed with fresh dirt earlier in the year and remained largely "ledge-free" enabling a fair number of riders to get over it, and many of the trophy classes, such as the 450 four-stroke trophy, and 450-600 altered classes, pulled huge numbers of entries.

The weekend's pro action began on Friday morning, with pro qualifying. The 450's used a short, steep, 250-foot, hill with a left hand turn in the middle, which required some serious Body-English to negotiate. The 700 and Open pro qualifying was run on the bigger, main hill on a 500-foot course. Nebraska hillclimbing legend, Harold "The Gasser" Waddell, uncorked the fastest Open class qualifying time of the day, California's Logan Mead topped the 700 qualifying and young Californian, Joseph Allnutt had the fastest 450 qualifying time. The mini pros rounded out Friday's pro classes, putting little bikes and riders on the big hill, and Utah's Alex Whitlock beat all the boys, nearly taking her mini over the top with a stellar ride.

Saturday morning started off with the all-new 450 semi-pro class, which had an amazing 59 riders on stock 450's, without the benefit of extensions and paddles. The class was interesting in that it included both pro and amateur competitors, including legendary off-road racer Jimmy Jarrett, making his first appearance at a hillclimb. Jarrett went on to win the class, which unfortunately could only make one set of runs because it was so large.

The women's pro class featured its usual war, with Sam Curtin taking the win over a deep, talent-laden field of women. With the level of skill and guts that these women showed, it remains just a matter of time before a woman qualifies for one of the pro class mains. Yes, they are getting to be that good.

The 450 pro main ran on Saturday afternoon on the standard, really tough and ledge-filled pro hill, and continuing his amazing season, Utah's Jason Smith once again topped a deep and talented field to win the class over Tyler Cardwell and Austin Teyler.

Smith also topped the 700 main, although Max Simmons and Logan Mead made him work for it. Daylight was quickly evaporating, forcing the Open pro main to go with one run, which upset a number of riders and spectators, and forced cancellation of both the popular X-Climb and King of the Hill competitions. Meanwhile, Jason Smith swept his third class of the day, nipping Sean Cardwell and Casey Curtin for the win.

Saturday night's show was comprised of the last of the altered trophy classes, which have shown incredible growth since rubble paddles and unlimited wheelbases are now allowed. California's Connor Nejedly won the huge, 251-600cc altered class over Nevada's Justin Mastalka and Idaho's Rory Schinsing.

Saturday night was rounded out by the appearance of Captain Mark and his trusty Arctic Cat Snowmobile. He did make the hill once, but subsequent runs were not as successful, and his sled rolled numerous times all the way to the bottom of the hill, much to the delight of the crowd, losing its windshield, hood, etc., on its way to the bottom.

A new schedule put all of the stock trophy bike classes on Sunday, along with the rest of the semi-pro classes. Lodi, California's Lefty Frueh just keeps getting better, going over the big hill a total of nine times, and at 72, he is beating guys young enough to be his grandsons. It took three hills running at the same time most of the day to get everyone done, finally wrapping up another Big Nasty Weekend at 4:30 on Sunday afternoon.

Next year's Big Nasty will be held on September 18-20, 2015, and discussions are well underway on how to make Idaho's largest motorcycle event a tighter show in the future.

The organizers wish to extend a hearty "helmets off" to the sponsors, donators and partners: the title sponsor, The Treasure Valley Ford Stores, Rhino Rush,509, Pepsi, Maverik, Adventure's First Stop, Edge Performance, Pabst Blue Ribbon, The Battery Exchange, Birds of Prey Powersports, Mickey Ray's, Camping World, Premier Alliance Insurance, Carl's Cycles, Moto Tech, Jailbreak Bail Bonds, Hess Pumice, Project Filter, Buck's 4X4, KLIM, Frozen Moto, Volt Vapes, Kiwi Loco, Tarantula Tequila, Lectron, Jack Daniels Whiskey, Rekluse, Off-Road Vixens, Idaho Star, Fly Racing, Pro-Moto Billet, Idaho Banking Company, Kouba Link, The Double Diamond Saloon, Amsoil, Cheeky's, Razorback Offroad, Dave's Excavation, Donoho Construction, and TQ Off-Road Bike Rentals.

A big thank you is also in order to the ranch owner, Tom Pence, and the small army of staff and volunteers who helped, including the Fly Racing, Big Nasty Catchers, headed by Derray Quarders. The event could also not have happened without the support of the Payette County Commissioners and law enforcement and medical personnel, as well as the Idaho State Police.
