

13th Anniversary Big Nasty Hillclimb Stays Nasty

By Ron Dillon

Idaho's largest motorcycle event, the 13th annual, Excel Fabrication Big Nasty Hillclimb, roared to life once again on September 18-20, 2015 and brought together its usual eclectic mix of interesting hillclimbers, machines and fans. The event was the sixth and final round of the 2015 Pole Position Raceway/Malcolm Smith Racing North American Hillclimb Association (NAHA) Championship Series, and pulled a gigantic number of 662 entries from across the country.

Known as "Idaho's largest motorcycle event," and "The place where NASCAR meets Burning Man" the Big Nasty Woodstock/Burning Man feel continued in 2015. A spinning ride helped keep kids entertained, and a local DJ spun tunes on Friday and Saturday nights. Saturday night featured a gigantic fireworks show and a professional rodeo returned for the first time since 2012 along with lawnmower drag racing and a full-blown, sanctioned snowmobile grass pulled a number of 130mph sleds and 4-wheelers to the back of the venue. And of course, some of the best professional and amateur hillclimbers in the world competed for three days on some really nasty hills.

The weekend's action began on Friday morning, with all of the stock big bikes and semi-pro action. Sam Curtin topped a large and tough women's pro class, and 73 year old Lefty Frueh rode better than ever, winning or placing in several cash classes for riders over 40.

Saturday had three different hills running at the same time. One featured stock minis and pit bikes, with pro qualifying running on another hill and altered bikes on yet another. Later in the day, the 450 pro main and X-Climb events. Utah's Jason Smith once again topped a deep and talented field to win the 450 Main, and later won the side-by-side X-Climb as well.

The 700 and Open Pro Main events ran on Sunday morning. Smith fought to another win in the 700 main, but he had to settle for fifth in the Open Main, as young Montana rider, Austin Teyler proved to be unbeatable on the big bikes in both the Open Main and the weekend finale, The King of the Hill which put the top 5 Open finishers against the 15-foot tall, vertical Big Nasty Wall, an obstacle so intimidating that several riders refused to even attempt it. Teyler won $2,100 for the King of the Hill, a record amount for that event.

Next year's Big Nasty will be held on September 17-19, 2016, and discussions are underway on how to make Idaho's largest motorcycle event an even bigger show in the future.

The organizers wish to extend a hearty "helmets off" to the sponsors, donators and partners: the title sponsor, Excel Fabrication, Alpha Home Systems, ATP Truck Performance, BT Diesel Performance, Pepsi, Coors, Rockstar, The Battery Exchange, Birds of Prey Powersports, Mickey Ray's, Camping World, The Frechette Farmer's Insurance Agency, H&E Equipment Services, Carl's Cycles, Woody's Outdoor Power, Rockwell Watches, Project Filter, Buck's 4X4, HMK, Dillon Toyota Lift, Shock Strap, Papa Johns Pizza, Tarantula Tequila, Jack Daniels Whiskey, Rekluse, Off-Road Vixens, Idaho Star, Idaho Banking Company, Kouba Link, The Double Diamond Saloon, Amsoil, Cheeky's, Razorback Offroad, and TQ Off-Road Bike Rentals.

A big thank you is also in order to the ranch owner, Tom Pence, and the small army of staff and volunteers who helped, including the CWI Big Nasty Catchers, headed by Derray Quarders. The event could also not have happened without the support of the Payette County Commissioners and law enforcement and medical personnel.
