

17th Anniversary Big Nasty Hillclimb Stays Big & Music Gets Sweeter

Words by Ron Dillon, Photos by Bailey Photography

Idaho's largest motorcycle event, the 17th annual, 5CR Trailers Big Nasty Hillclimb, lit up once again, September 12-15, 2019 and brought together its usual combination of interesting hillclimbers, machines and fans. This was a historic moment in hillclimbing history; the two, once warring, but now friendly, hillclimbing factions in the West, the NAHA (North American Hillclimbing Association) and Rockwell Pro Hillclimb Series, came together for the first time ever, making this a dual points event and round four for both series for the 2019 season. Everyone agreed that this was a great idea and it appears likely that the NAHA and Rockwell groups will work more and more closely in the future, as they both try to grow and help the sport of motorcycle hillclimbing, the oldest form of motorcycle competition on earth, (over 100 years and counting).

For 2019 Big Nasty promoters continued their focused efforts to guarantee that the event would be clean, safe and family-friendly, and for the third year in a row, no arrests or fights happened, nor were any biker gangs on hand, and all three nights featured terrific, family-oriented country music, culminating with the nationally-known Chancey Williams and the Younger Brothers Band on Saturday night. From now on, attendees can count on hearing talented country musicians at the event as well as lots of kid's activities such as razor races, pit bike races, and the ever-popular Big Nasty Mud Bog. All of this confirms that the only nasty part of the Big Nasty is the hill and the mud. Bring those kids and grandkids in 2020!

It took four full days to run the 652 pro, semi-pro and trophy entries that turned out, but there was only one serious injury all weekend, which happened when rapid Travis Coy, went through the timing lights so fast, that he sailed right over the other side of the hill, sustaining a broken wrist and several broken ribs. The terrain that he landed in was so rough that he had to hike out under his own power, but with talent and determination like his, he will be back. It could be debated who had the best weekend. Young Californian Sammy Hummel has finally come into his own, beating the best hillclimbers in the world to win both the 700 and Open Pro classes on Sunday. As usual, Utah's legendary Travis Whitlock, now 50 years young, had a terrific weekend as well, and so did California's Joe "Dirty Joe" Shipman. Another young California rider who is improving by leaps and bounds is Joseph Allnutt, who rode great all weekend.

Young, Sammy Hummel just keeps getting better, and better.....

The organizers wish to extend a hearty "helmets off" to the sponsors, donators and partners: the title sponsor, 5CR Trailers, Treasure Valley Geico Insurance, Excel Fabrication, Off-Road Vixens, Coors Light, Fly Racing, Rockwell Time, Tates Rents, Buck's 4X4, Fireball Whiskey, Pendleton Whiskey, Old Camp Whiskey, Dillon Toyota Lift, Buck's Bags, Suicycle, Papa Johns Pizza, Rekluse, Fly Racing, Seat Concepts, Quiver Ski Company, Fastway Performance, Jose Cuervo, The Double Diamond Saloon, C-Bass Auto Recycling, and Fruitland Outdoor Power Sports.

A big thank you is also in order to the ranch owner, Tom Pence, and the small army of staff and volunteers who helped, including the Excel Fabrication Big Nasty Catchers, headed by Derray Quarders and Mark Bell. The event could also not have happened without the support of the Payette County Commissioners, Vallivue High School Girls Basketball and Payette County Sheriff's Department, and the New Plymouth Quick Response Unit.
